

Privacy Policy

Faith In Action Ministries is committed to protecting your privacy and developing technology that gives you the most powerful and safe online experience. This Statement of Privacy applies to the Faith In Action Ministries Website and governs data collection and usage. By using the Faith In Action Ministries website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

Collection of your Personal Information

Faith In Action Ministries collects personally identifiable information, such as your e-mail address, name, home or work address or telephone number. Faith In Action Ministries also collects anonymous demographic information, which is not unique to you, such as your ZIP code, age, gender, preferences, interests and favourites.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by Faith In Action Ministries. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring Web site addresses. This information is used by Faith In Action Ministries for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Faith In Action Ministries Website.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Faith In Action Ministries public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others. Note: Faith In Action Ministries does not read any of your private online communications.

Faith In Action Ministries encourages you to review the privacy statements of Web sites you choose to link to from Faith In Action Ministries so that you can understand how those Web sites collect, use and share your information. Faith In Action Ministries is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on Web sites outside of the Faith In Action Ministries and Faith In Action Ministries family of Websites.

Use of your Personal Information

Faith In Action Ministries collects and uses your personal information to operate the Faith In Action Ministries Websites and deliver the services you have requested. Faith In Action Ministries also uses your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from Faith In Action Ministries and its affiliates. Faith In Action Ministries may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered.

Faith In Action Ministries does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties. Faith In Action Ministries may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party. In addition, Faith In Action Ministries may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Faith In Action Ministries, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Faith In Action Ministries Websites will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Faith In Action Ministries or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Faith In Action Ministries; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Faith In Action Ministries, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The Faith In Action Ministries Website use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a Web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Faith In Action Ministries pages, or register with Faith In Action Ministries site or services, a cookie helps Faith In Action Ministries to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Faith In Action Ministries Web site, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Faith In Action Ministries features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Faith In Action Ministries services or Web sites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

Faith In Action Ministries secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Faith In Action Ministries secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other Web sites, it is protected through the use of encryption, such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol.

Changes to this Statement

Faith In Action Ministries will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to reflect company and customer feedback. Faith In Action Ministries encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how Faith In Action Ministries is protecting your information.

Contact Information

Faith In Action Ministries welcomes your comments regarding this Statement of Privacy. If you believe that Faith In Action Ministries has not adhered to this Statement, please contact Faith In Action Ministries at webmaster@elreyjesus.org. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly determine and remedy the problem.
